Subject: Hungary- The existence in Balatonfured of a regiment of artillery

25X1

At Balatonfured only one regiment of artillery is known to be present, and the regiment was constituted in 1950/51 at Balatonfured and which was stationed at the time at Sanatorio Margit.

Successively, there appeared near Csopak (at the crossing of the roads for Balatonkovesd, Csopak-Csakanyhegy) some barracks and huts where the above regiment was stationed,

In October 1952, the same regiment was transferred to Cegled and incorporated in the 30th Art. Div.

At the beginning of 1953 the afore-mentioned regiment was transferred to Szabadszallas where some new barracks had been constructed. The regiment in question was: 54th Howitzer-Military Post 9391-Szabadszallas.

The regiment is composed of the following:

1st Artillery Group with 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Batteries.

2nd Artillery Group with the 4th, 5th, and 6th Batteries.

Each of the ^{BATTERIES} ~~batteries~~ consists of four 122mm howitzers.

REGIMENT

After the transfer of the ~~regiment~~ from Cegled to Szabafszallas, the Ministry of War placed at the disposal of the Ministry of the Interior the camp that was left available near Balatonfured. This camp became a training camp for the police. The camp in question still exists: on a part of it there has been erected a rest home for the members of the police.

We may rule out the assumption that the artillery regiment has been or is about to be re-transferred to Balatonfured. ^{IF} ~~IF~~ artillery troops have been observed in the neighborhood of Balatonfured, the temporary lodgings must certainly be for the summer maneuvers for artillery units of Veszprem or Papa.
